

Click on the image to link direct to the exhibition

Life in the Shadows: Albinism in Africa

the unknown story of the everyday lives of those living with albinism in Africa

- WARNING: Some visitors may find some of this exhibition content graphic and disturbing -

- ONLINE EXHIBITION VISITOR COMMENTS -

'Wow! So beautifully captured with so much respect.' - MY, Madrid, Spain

'What a challenging life these poor people have. Such powerful photographs.' - DS, Perth, Australia

'...beautifully & sensitively photographed - I'm thinking of how I could fundraise...' - PD, Auckland, New Zealand

'I never realised how common albinism is. Thank you for sharing...Very touching.' - CM, London, UK

'These people are just that, people, and uniquely beautiful. Wonderfully captured photographs. So very sad.' - EH, Warwick, UK

'I...was horrified at the terrible way these people are treated just for looking a bit different.'

Beautifully photographed and documented.' - CH, Wales, UK

'...amazing new work... It's highly important to highlight their plight.' - BS, Norway

'Your new exhibition is amazing. I did not know about this at all. It's extremely moving.' - CR, Paris, France

'...this is BRILLIANT!! ...already passed it on to some key colleagues' - DS, Under the Same Sun, Canada

see the photographer's PhotoMails at: www.wildfotoafrica.com/index.php/photomails/photomails-index

see P A N O R A M I C AFRICA at: www.spirit-of-the-land.com

see more of PORTFOLIO & COMMERCIAL PHOTOGRAPHY at: www.wildfotoafrica.com